The Art of Connection in Every Encounter

Now Listen to Full Article

When you find yourself liking someone, it's often because you've discovered shared interests or experiences. You might bond over common interests in sports, hobbies, or even a shared passion for music, such as Bollywood songs from the fifties and sixties. These shared passions foster a connection and create rapport between you two.

EQ AND LEADERSHIP

As Goleman rightly says, the intrapersonal and interpersonal aspects of leadership are not just “nice to have.” We know that strong leaders “need to have” these attributes in order to engage and energize employees. The good news is that most of these facets can be cultivated with motivation, effort, mentoring and practice—each of which merits its own article.
