Step 6

Change

Most often, we base our decision to change only on the results we achieve at the end of any journey and ignore the entire journey for the sake of results!

The Struggle of Self Love

If you want to watch your favourite movie but you got nobody to accompany you, so what? Take yourself out and enjoy it with a tub of popcorn! If you want to go to that restaurant, you've always wanted to, then dress yourself up and hop in! Enjoy yourself! If you want to roam around in your bicycle while the whole world is racing in their cars and motor bikes? Just do it!!!

THE GITA AND THREE Rs OF VALUE DELIVERY

Any task or work that I do, I must keep all these three Rs in mind. I need some reward to live a contented life. I should have clear outputs, the results, meeting the needs of my stakeholders and customers so that they see value and pay me my reward.

WHEN THE STORMS COME

You don't have to enjoy the storms when they arrive, but don't spend time commiserating that you are suffering through a storm. It is wasted energy; it only adds to your stress and pain and hurts rather than helps you weather through it.

MASTERING INTERVIEWS

From Cultural Respect to Leadership Potential

Youngsters of the school going type generally tend to be cautious around authority figures. From an early age, they maintain a respectful distance from teachers, no matter how gentle the teacher may be, as well as from other adults, including friends and colleagues of their parents. When such people visit their homes, youngsters often confine themselves to their rooms unless these visitors bring their own children.

A NEW PARADIGM

It is absolutely essential that the changes that have happened in the student learning landscape recently must be adjusted and adequately factored in the pedagogical design by empowering teachers with knowledge resources particularly in areas that are subjective in nature. This empowerment must be continuous and well structured for better leveraging.
